

Sea Oasis of Elegance and Luxury

Day 1 – Welcome to Dubrovnik

Your journey begins in Dubrovnik, where timeless beauty meets refined luxury. You'll stay at the iconic Hotel Excelsior, perfectly positioned with a private beach and sweeping views of the Old Town. Step straight into history with a privately guided tour through Dubrovnik's ancient streets. Discover landmarks like the Cathedral, Stradun, and Sponza Palace—enhanced with exclusive access to hidden corners rarely seen by visitors. Lunch is served at the Michelin-starred Restaurant 360°, where exceptional cuisine is paired with unforgettable panoramic views. As the sun sets, private dinner aboard a boat, complete with a curated gourmet menu and fine wines, all set against the shimmering backdrop of Dubrovnik. End your day with a relaxed evening stroll through the Old Town, exploring galleries and elegant cafés within the city walls.

Day 2- Coastal Flavours & Hidden Gems

Today takes you beyond Dubrovnik to the charming town of Ston. Cruise to a local oyster farm and savour freshly harvested oysters straight from the sea, paired with sparkling wine. Continue to the renowned Rizman Winery for a leisurely lunch and wine pairing experience, all while taking in spectacular views of the Adriatic, the Pelješac Bridge, and nearby islands. Back in Dubrovnik, enjoy dinner overlooking the sea before diving into a private luxury shopping experience discovering exclusive Croatian design, craftsmanship, and fashion.

Day 3 – Island Serenity

Set sail on a private boat to the idyllic Elafiti Islands, where crystal-clear waters and hidden coves invite you to unwind. A relaxed seaside lunch completes the experience. In the evening, return to Dubrovnik for a truly bespoke dining moment—a private terrace dinner prepared by your personal chef, tailored entirely to your tastes.

Day 4 – From Dubrovnik to Hvar

Glide across the Adriatic by speedboat to the glamorous island of Hvar, welcomed with refreshing drinks and stunning coastal views along the way. Check into the luxurious Maslina Resort before heading out to explore Hvar Town with your private guide. Dinner awaits at a renowned seaside restaurant, where the freshest seafood takes centre stage. As night falls, experience Hvar's vibrant atmosphere—whether sipping cocktails at an iconic beach club or enjoying an elegant evening of classical music in one of Europe's oldest theatres.

Day 5 – Wine, Sea & Sun

Immerse yourself in Hvar's rich wine heritage with a private visit to one of the island's celebrated wineries. Taste distinctive local varietals while learning about centuries-old traditions. Later, set off on a yacht excursion around Hvar and the nearby Pakleni Islands. Pause for lunch at a stylish waterfront restaurant, where innovative cuisine meets breathtaking sea views. Spend the evening strolling along Hvar's lively promenade, discovering chic bars and relaxed seaside lounges.

Day 6 – Culture & Indulgence

Take in sweeping views from the historic Španjola Fortress, overlooking Hvar and its surrounding islands. Continue to a family estate to explore the art of olive oil production, complete with a guided tasting experience. Your final evening on Hvar is reserved for an unforgettable dinner—where traditional Dalmatian flavours are reimagined with a modern twist, served in an intimate and elegant setting.

Day 7 – Farewell Croatia

Return to Dubrovnik by speedboat, enjoying one last scenic journey across the Adriatic. After a relaxed lunch in the Old Town, your journey concludes with a private transfer to Dubrovnik Airport—leaving you with lasting memories of Croatia's most refined coastal experiences.
